

0915	Arrival
0925	Welcome from the Organisers
0930	Panel 1: Chair, Laura Jenkins <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Katariina Harjunpää (University of Helsinki) [online] How mediators use reports of prior talk as a bridge to a new question 2. Fabio Ferraz de Almeida (University of Lincoln), Sigurd D'hondt & Elena Barrett (University of Jyväskylä) [in person] An interactional perspective on the negotiation of trial procedure at the International Criminal Court 3. Selena Mariano (University of Perugia) [online] "I'm not on trial here": survivors resisting secondary victimisation in courtrooms 4. Sarah Atkins (Aston University), Joanne Traynor (Anglia Ruskin University) & Felicity Deamer (Aston University) [in person] 'FIRST LINE IS READING AS A KIDNAPPING?': Communicating and categorising 'kidnap' incidents in UK police emergency calls
1030	Questions and panel discussion
1050	Break
1115	Keynote: Chair, Elizabeth Stokoe Emma Tennent (Victoria University of Wellington) [in person] Respecifying 'barriers to reporting': Calling the police about family violence
1200	Lunch
1300	Parallel Data Sessions. Facilitators, Jo Sims & Katie Jordin <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. [online] André Buscariolli (University of California, Santa Barbara) Holding the police accountable? Professional vision in departmental investigations interviews 2. [online] Eve Mullins & Steve Kirkwood (University of Edinburgh) Resistance in probation sessions 3. [in person] Alison Knight (University of York) Orientations to suspect responses in police interrogations
1400	Time to move between rooms for in person attendees
1405	Panel 2: Chair, Alexandra Kent <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Michael Mora-Rodriguez (University Pompeu Fabra) [online] Police Accessing Civilians' Personal Sphere: Compliance Orientation for a Vehicle Search at Border Checks 2. Robin Smith & Terry Au-Yeung (Cardiff University) [in person] 'The video does look concerning but it is only a snapshot': accusing and counter-accusing racism through different synchronies and diachronies 3. Christopher Elsey & Hannah Jones (De Montfort University) [online] Involuntary psychiatric detention in public spaces: Crisis and mental health disclosure in professional sport 4. Fernanda da Cruz (University Fed. Sau Paulo), Lorenza Mondada (University of Basel) & Edson Teles (University Fed. Sau Paulo) [in person] Making bones talk: a multimodal EMCA study of teamwork in a forensic laboratory
1505	Questions and panel discussion
1525	Break
1545	Panel 3: Chair, Emma Richardson <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Kate Steel (University of West England) [in person] The dynamics of a difficult disclosure during a police first response call-out in a domestic abuse case 2. Søren Sandager Sørensen (University of Agder) [online] 'Hva tenker du' ("what are your thoughts") as a question type in Norwegian police interviews 3. Alexandra Kent (Keele University), Magnus Hamann (Loughborough University) & Jo Meredith (Magenta Research) [in person] Effective Communication for Digital Policing: A conversation analytic study of Digital 101 messaging in the UK 4. Ann Weatherall (University of Bedfordshire) [in person] Justifying the use of violence in feminist self-defence classes
1645	Questions and panel discussion
1710	Reflections with Charles Antaki
1730	Close – Dinner at a restaurant in Loughborough

